

Sasha R. Lyonson

101-75 Gorge Road, West
Victoria, B.C. V9A 7A9

Telephone: 1-250-920-4163
Email: slyonson@gmail.com

Objective

To gain employment within a sales based environment;
allowing me to demonstrate my ability to learn quickly and work with minimal supervision.

Employment

Catering Staff / Cook

Equinox Cafe & Catering, Duncan, B.C. 2007-2008

- Assisted with management of catered events within fine dining establishment
- Demonstrated strong product knowledge and product information to customers
- Resourceful; ability to work as team to meet customer needs and answer inquiries
- Completed set up and take down for large scale catered events
- Ensured set up for catered events was visually appealing and welcoming
- Created lunch and dinner meals in pro-local café and catering business
- Maintained high level of cleanliness within business
- Organized stock and product in thorough manner

Cook

Floyd's Diner, Victoria, B.C. 2008-2008

- Created large quantities of popular menu items within time deadlines
- Cleaned kitchen and supplies prior to shift according to FoodSafe protocol
- Worked long hours independently, successfully meeting time line target
- Advised staff of needed product orders for business

Cook

Floyd's Diner 2, Victoria, B.C. 2008-2008

- Prepared items for morning and afternoon clientele rush
- Worked in fast paced environment, functioning as effective team member
- Arranged food storage within establishment in organized style
- Flexible team member, consistently willing to ensure all tasks were completed past work hours

Education and Certification

Bachelor of Technology

Camosun College, Victoria, B.C. 2008-2010

- Currently taking a year off for funding of future courses

FoodSafe Certification

Camosun College, Victoria, B.C. 2006

References

Sean O'Connell

Owner, Equinox Catering, Duncan, B.C. 250-746-6452

Jessica North-O'Connell

Co-owner, Equinox Catering, Duncan, B.C. therapeia@shaw.ca